

icumedical
human connections

“Tape-Free” stabilization for Foley catheters

Bactiguard

medin
A Hamilton Medical Company

StatLock™ Stabilization Device

Indications for Use: The StatLock™ Device is an stabilization device for compatible catheters.
Contraindications: None (type or adhesive design).
Warnings and Precautions: Catheter manipulation during StatLock™ Stabilization Device application and removal.
Usage: Catheters are intended to be used in the drainage system, unless another arrangement is used.
StatLock™ Device should be replaced daily and replaced when clinically indicated, at least every 7 days. Catheter replacement should be based on established hospital policy and procedure.
Please consult product inserts and labels for any indications, contraindications, hazards, warnings, cautions and directions for use.
StatLock™ Device are sterile.

© 2015 BD and StatLock are trademarks of Becton, Dickinson and Company and its affiliates.
© 2015 Medin, Bactiguard, and icumedical.

Teleflex

ARROW

solventum

SPACELABS
HEALTHCARE

Alpha Medical

Calitate pentru viață

HAMILTON MEDICAL

FUJIFILM

Terufusion™

Infusion System

TCI TERUFUSION
COLORFULLY INSPIRES

Infusion and syringe pumps